

Southeast Europe

The countries Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Croatia, Greece, Kosovo, Macedonia, Montenegro, Serbia and Slovenia make up Southeast Europe; many of these countries used to belong to the former Yugoslavian Republic.

Due to the extremely complex situation, this document especially lists links to information on the Yugoslav wars and the current situation in the Balkan region, as well as presentations of a few regional youth projects.

Conflicts: Reasons and Chronology: Yugoslav Wars

- Wikipedia:
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Yugoslav_Wars
- Timeline : The Former Yugoslavia
<http://www.infoplease.com/spot/yugotimeline1.html>

Current Situation

- Annual conference of the Swiss East Cooperation: Youth in the Balkan region - Generation on the Move
http://www.ddc.admin.ch/en/Home/News/Close_up?itemID=99404
- Regional Cooperation Council: Stability Pact for South Eastern Europe
<http://www.stabilitypact.org/>

Projects

- East Project
<http://www.y4d.ch/ost/projekte-2011/>
- Stiftung Kinderdorf Pestalozzi: Programmes in South East Europe
<http://www.pestalozzi.ch/en/development-cooperation/south-east-europe/>
- Initiative in Southeast Europe of the Franco-German Youth Office (FGYO) (German or French)
<http://www.ofaj.org/balkans/de/soe/ueberblick/index.html>
- SDC: Community Forums in Southeast Europe
http://www.deza.admin.ch/en/Home/Projects/Community_forums_in_Southeast_Europe